sort of prevarication was resorted to S. M. HUTZEL, by alliance leaders in this county three or four years ago, but you couldn't find a member now who cares little enough for his reputation to even claim such a thing. Doesn't the Advocate know that it has been less than a month since the people's party decided to reorganize the alliance as an auxillary-a side showto their political organization? An individual who will try to create the impression that the alliance is nonpolitical is either a knave or apopulist.

IF the democrats are in earnest about reducing the expenditures, why on earth don't they abolish the bounty on sugar. They won't do it, because four-fifths of the sugar is raised in the south. Democrats will protect the industries of the south while crushing out the industries of the north. It will be remembered that when the Mills' tariff bill was under discussion, the duties on the products of the south were not molested. In that bill the duty on cotton ties was taken off, and the duty on the hoop which held the pork barrel together was retained.—Leav- THOMAS NESBITT. enworth Times.

THE political slate maker is kept busy these long winter evenings getting ready for the next state convention. Better let these matters figure themselves out. Unless the rank and file of the republican party are consulted more than in the past slate-made tickets will not count much .- Smith County Pio-
